Financials

- Draft 2022-2023 budget presented, which will be used for grant applications; board members to bring comments to next meeting
- Variance comments to be included with financials

Club Manager Update

- Sandra has prepared next season's bonspiel calendar, in agreement and consultation with other lower mainland curling clubs; current schedule as followsL
 - Men's Rocktober Fest Oct 27-30
 - Mixed - weekend of November 18
 - Ladies Feb 3 -5
 - Masters Nov 21-23
 - Doubles Shake Your Shamrocks - Mar 17-19 (second doubles event to be considered)
- An "icebreaker" event will be held for members only; tentative date October 1st; format TBD

Other Business

- Rock Replacement
 - References will be sought; response to capital grant application expected in September
- Proposed weekly calendar - discussion
 - Focus on improving participation in daytime leagues; possible "open doubles" league and "50 plus seniors" league; new leagues on Sunday also an option
- Gaming License - applies to everything; Sandra obtains a blanket license each season
- Junior Curling - looking for someone to lead this - Peter is unable to do this, so someone in the Club or the Club Manager must look for someone
- Membership & Diversity
 - Important to focus on diversity AND membership in conjunction with each other; incorporate diversity into our various messaging
 - Consider a daytime novice open league, which could funnel members into our evening leagues as well
